About the Event:

Institute Innovation Council, C.M.P. College Prayagraj had organized an Educational Tour on “Herbal Gardening and Organic Farming” on October 10, 2022. Under this programme, the students were taken on a private organic farming area of Naini, Chaka Block (Prayagraj). Mr. Satyavrat Singh, Junior Project Fellow, Traditional-Rehabilitation Forest Research Center, Prayagraj, gave complete information about the organic farming of various crops, vegetables and fruits present in the field of organic agriculture. He also introduced about the benefits of organic farming and the necessary means used in it. This program was successfully conducted in offline mode with the objective to orient students towards Benefits of Organic Farming for mankind, to establish their own business of organic farming and market distribution.
